Parish Meeting Celebrates 2009; Elects Coles and Millner to Vestry

By David Smith

The annual parish meeting was held after worship on December 20, 2009 with about 40 members attending.

As always, lunch was delicious and the parish hall was filled with conversation and laughter.

John Geyer served as the meeting's moderator and read a report offered by Senior Warden, Dick Camp.

The report served as our parish's "year in review" and clearly outlined and recalled our programs and accomplishments.

We are delighted to be operating with positive cash flow and though we were not able to pay the entire amount requested from the diocese we did exceed the amount initially pledged.

Our outreach to the Oak Grove retirement facility is quite successful and many parish members are involved.

The parish newsletter and website continue to serve as fantastic communication tools for parish members & friends.

Treasurer, John Geyer, shared our current financial status and offered pertinent charts & financial statements for everyone to review.

New Vestry Members
Beth Coles and
H. Victor Millner

In 2009 we were able to meet all financial obligations from pledged income and have seen improvement in the recovery of our endowment.

The finance committee meets during each calendar year to discuss the portfolio structure

Vestry Notes from the Senior Warden

Thanks to John Geyer and Mary Hicks Heitzler for all that they do for our parish and for their service on the vestry for the past three years. And welcome to our in-coming vestry members, Vic Millner and Beth Coles!

I am really looking forward to my third year on the vestry, not because it's my last but because of the wonderful church family we have at Emmanuel.

January and February will be a busy time for the new vestry with election of Senior and Junior Wardens, finalization of the budget for 2010, and preparations for the annual Council meeting beginning on February 12th in Williamsburg.

Just to make sure we have no idle time, we will also be finalizing a work list to address building and grounds repair and maintenance issues, preparing outreach plans, and last but not least, planning my first vestry notes article a couple of years ago about our job being more than bricks and mortar of the church, that it also includes the creation of crossroads that bring people together. That theme is alive and well and we continue to be blessed with crossroads opportunities.

"The church is more than bricks and mortar; it also includes the creation of crossroads that bring people together."

for several church functions for fun, fellowship and fundraising.

And I am sure Vic and Beth will add a lot of value to our work.

You may recall my comments in

Two such crossroads events are scheduled for January and will bring the community to our doors.

The Wednesday dinner meetings, conceived by David and the ministers of the other Chatham Main Street churches, will continue at Emmanuel on Wednesday, January 13th with David making a presentation on "The Episcopal Church & the New World Order."

Emmanuel will also host the Chatham Concert Series again this year with the first concert in January. (See page 4 for details.)

We are so blessed with the talent brought to our area by Kevin Zakresky, Choirmaster at Chatham Hall.

Don't forget to mark your calendars for these events; you will enjoy the crossroads experiences!

and makes recommendations when necessary.

Fr. Smith announced that 2009 average Sunday attendance was equal to that of 2008 despite the transfer of some members to other parishes. This past year we recorded three deaths, four confirmations and one baptism. We enjoyed hosting the Chatham Concert Series and look forward to doing so again this winter and spring.

Everyone offered appreciation & thanks to Mary Hicks Heitzler for her three years of service on the vestry and to John Geyer for his ongoing service as church treasurer as well as his three years of service on the vestry.

Beth Coles and Vic Millner were nominated, and elected by acclamation, as vestry members in the class of 2012.

The overall spirit of the parish is excellent and everyone is looking forward to another year together in God's service. At the conclusion of the meeting one parishioner commented, "That was the most pleasant parish meeting we have had in years!"

The Priest's Corner

Author and church theorist Brian McLaren calls it "The Episcopal Moment" and I agree.

While many believe the Episcopal Church and other mainline churches are in an unalterable slide toward oblivion, I am hopeful and encouraged.

Sure, membership has been in decline for a long time, but that doesn't mean it always will be. We may not see a great influx of new members in the next decade, but for some unknown reason, I truly think we will regain some of our "losses" and see a restored and invigorated church.

Spending most of my waking hours with teenaged girls in my classroom and office, on the athletic field, at meals and in chapel, I have come to realize how much they grow to enjoy liturgical worship, sensible Biblical interpretation, and a style of practicing the Christian faith that is not judgmental or threatening.

Everyone always says that youth are the "future of the church" and since that is obviously the case I am delighted to see their embrace of our identity.

So, if young people are drawn to and comfortable with the Episcopal Church, why don't we see more of them (or adults for that matter) in our collective pews? That's not hard to answer.

"People, young and old, come to church because they are invited."

People, young and old, come because they are invited. Statistics show that 85% of all people who join a church do so because they were invited by a friend or relative to attend and subsequently join.

New people come to church because someone they know agreed to pick them up (or meet them there) have lunch afterwards and keep doing so week after week until the new person has a sense of belonging on their own.

I know our town is small and our social circles have, for the most part, been determined. However, that should not prevent us from keeping our ears and eyes open for opportunities to be hospitable and inviting.

It really is that simple. What's the worst thing that could happen? I don't think there is a down side.

- David Smith

Emmanuel's Treasures

By Jeanne Reynolds

In the November issue, we highlighted the 1881 Sentence of Consecration, consecrating Emmanuel Church, as recorded in the parish record books, which date back to 1859. Here are some additional photos of these wonderful old records.
