The Collect of the Day

Almighty God, you have given your only Son to be for us a sacrifice for sin, and also an example of godly life: Give us grace to receive thankfully the fruits of his redeeming work, and to follow daily in the blessed steps of his most holy life; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lessons

First Reading

1 Kings 2:10-12; 3:3-14

David slept with his ancestors, and was buried in the city of David. The time that David reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron, and thirty-three years in Jerusalem. So Solomon sat on the throne of his father David; and his kingdom was firmly established.

Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the statutes of his father David; only, he sacrificed and offered incense at the high places. The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the principal high place; Solomon used to offer a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. At Gibeon the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, "Ask what I should give you." And Solomon said, "You have shown great and steadfast love to your servant my father David, because he walked before you in faithfulness, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart toward you; and you have kept for him this great and steadfast love, and have given him a son to sit on his throne today. And now, O Lord my God, you have made your servant king in place of my father David, although I am only a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in. And your servant is in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a great people, so numerous they cannot be numbered or counted. Give your servant therefore an understanding mind to govern your people, able to discern between good and evil; for who can govern this your great people?"

It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this. God said to him, "Because you have asked this, and have not asked for yourself long life or riches, or for the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right, I now do according to your word. Indeed I give you a wise and discerning mind; no one like you has been before you and no one like you shall arise after you. I give you also what you have not asked, both riches and honor all your life; no other king shall compare with you. If you will walk in my ways, keeping my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your life."

Psalm 111

- 1 Hallelujah! I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart, * in the assembly of the upright, in the congregation.
- 2 Great are the deeds of the Lord! *
they are studied by all who delight in them.
- 3 His work is full of majesty and splendor, *
and his righteousness endures for ever.
- 4 He makes his marvelous works to be remembered; *
the Lord is gracious and full of compassion.
- 5 He gives food to those who fear him; *
he is ever mindful of his covenant.
- 6 He has shown his people the power of his works *
in giving them the lands of the nations.
- 7 The works of his hands are faithfulness and justice; *
all his commandments are sure.
- 8 They stand fast for ever and ever, *
because they are done in truth and equity.
- 9 He sent redemption to his people; he commanded his covenant for ever; *
holy and awesome is his Name.
- 10 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; *
those who act accordingly have a good understanding;
his praise endures for ever.

The Epistle

Ephesians 5:15-20

Be careful then how you live, not as unwise people but as wise, making the most of the time, because the days are evil. So do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. Do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery; but be filled with the Spirit, as you sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs among yourselves, singing and making melody to the Lord in your hearts, giving thanks to God the Father at all times and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Holy Gospel

John 6:51-58

Jesus said, "I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh." The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" So Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day; for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live forever.”

The Prayers of the People

Form VI

BCP 392

In peace, we pray to you, Lord God. Silence. Leader and People pray responsively

For all people in their daily life and work;

For our families, friends, and neighbors, and for those who are alone.

For this community, the nation, and the world;

For all who work for justice, freedom, and peace.

For the just and proper use of your creation;

For the victims of hunger, fear, injustice, and oppression.

For all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;

For those who minister to the sick, the friendless, and the needy.

For the peace and unity of the Church of God;

For all who proclaim the Gospel, and all who seek the Truth.

For Michael our presiding bishop, and Holly our bishop and for all bishops and other ministers;

For all who serve God in his Church.

For the special needs and concerns of this congregation.

We invite your petitions in the silences, either silently or aloud.

For the sick, home bound, or grieving; Rosemary Nichols, Brenda Clark, Paul Peterson, Ellen Bryant Voigt, Irma Irby and Put Brodsky. Silence

For those serving in the Armed Forces and in humanitarian enterprises, far from home and possibly in dangerous circumstances. Silence

Hear us, Lord;

For your mercy is great.

Our heavenly Father, we thank you for the good work of our search committee and vestry and for bringing The Reverend Beck Crites to us. We continue to pray for your divine guidance during this time of transition and change. We ask that you help us to understand and respond to the needs of Emmanuel Church, Chatham Hall, and the broader community. Continue to bless us with patience and understanding as your plan for us unfolds. Guide us as we receive our new pastor and direct our work to care for your people; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

We thank you, Lord, for all the blessings of this life. Silence

We invite your thanksgivings, either silently or aloud.

We will exalt you, O God our King;

And praise your Name forever and ever.

We pray for all who have died, that they may have a place in your eternal kingdom.

Silence

Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;
Who put their trust in you.

We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.
Leader and People

Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father;
in your compassion forgive us our sins,
known and unknown,
things done and left undone;
and so uphold us by your Spirit
that we may live and serve you in newness of life,
to the honor and glory of your Name;
Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Special Announcements

Just a reminder to those who may wish to donate anthems as a memorial or in memory of a loved one should speak with Kenyon Scott for a list of appropriate anthems and how the process will work.

A note from Becky+: I will have an irregular schedule for a few weeks due to meetings and events at Chatham Hall. Regular office hours at the church will be announced after Labor Day. Until then I will publish the next weeks schedule in the Sunday bulletin.

Office hours this week: Tuesday and Wednesday from 1-3pm.

Chatham Hall this week:

Monday 8:30-6:30 Tuesday 8:30-12:30; 6-8 Wednesday 9-10 am Friday 12-1:15 pm

Please do not hesitate to contact me on my cell for any reason: 540-797-1120. I am always happy to visit.

A Bit About Me

I am excited to be called to Emmanuel and to Chatham Hall. My husband Jim and I have three children and four grandchildren. Our eldest, Jenny, is married to Joe. They have two children, Maddie (12) and Aidan (10), and live in Blacksburg where Jenny is a counselor with Virginia Tech. Debbie is a school psychologist living in Fayetteville, NC. She has two children, Abby (6) and Tucker (3). Daniel is a civilian civil engineer with the Dept. of the Navy. He lives in Springfield, Va. and works at the Navy Yard. Jim and I both grew up in Northern Virginia. After college we lived in Richmond while we attended graduate school. We moved to Roanoke in 1983.

I felt a call to ministry when I was about 12 years old but for many reasons I did not follow that call until 2004. After graduation from Virginia Theological Seminary, I was ordained in 2007. I look forward to the work of relationships - with God, with the people of Emmanuel, with the students and faculty at Chatham Hall and with the people of Chatham.
